

神奈川

Vertical text on the right side of the map, likely providing publication information or a title. The text is written in vertical columns and includes details such as the publisher's name and the year of publication.