

田太南

Vertical legend and scale information on the left side of the map. It includes a scale bar at the top, followed by various symbols and text for identifying features like roads, rivers, and buildings. The text is in Chinese characters.

Vertical text on the right side of the map, likely providing additional information or a legend for the map's features.

