<Notice from ward office>

If you object to the disposition stated in this notice, you may file a request for review with the Mayor of Yokohama within three months from the day following the date on which you receive this notice (or by the earlier deadline if one is set according to Article 19-4 of the Local Tax Act). The request for review (two copies; original and duplicate) may also be submitted through your local ward office. A lawsuit seeking to cancel the disposition stated in this notice may be filed against the City of Yokohama (with the Mayor of Yokohama as the representative defendant) within six months from the day following the date of service of the decision on the aforementioned request for review.

In principle, a lawsuit to cancel the disposition cannot be filed unless a decision on the request for review has been issued. However, you may file a lawsuit without awaiting the decision in the following cases: ①No decision has been made within three months from the date the request for review was filed, ②Urgent necessity exists to avoid significant damage caused by the disposition, its execution, or the continuation of procedures, ③There is any other justifiable reason for not awaiting the decision. Note that a lawsuit for cancellation of the disposition cannot be filed if more than one year has passed since the date of the decision.
